Helping Shape Informed Citizens

The Fundação Republicana Brasileira (FRB) is an institution dedicated to political education, civic formation, and the strengthening of democracy in Brazil.

Supported by the Republicanos (the Republican Party), FRB has been active nationwide since 2007, offering free courses, training programs, and events focused on developing public leaders and encouraging active civic participation in political life.

The Foundation is also the sponsoring institution of Faculdade Republicana, a higher education institution that expands its role by integrating education, knowledge production, and social impact.

As part of its training initiatives, FRB offers free non-degree courses in politics, public management, and citizenship, with programs including Parliamentary Advisory, Legislative Process, and Public Administration.

This offering also includes Language Courses in English, Spanish, and Brazilian Sign Language (Libras), delivered through live online classes.

All courses include certification issued by Faculdade Republicana.

Núcleo de Estudos e Pesquisas (NEP)

Center for Studies and Research

With the aim of deepening its academic and institutional engagement, the FRB maintains the Núcleo de Estudos e Pesquisas (NEP), which works to expand access to information and strengthen a more informed and engaged society.

NEP develops:

- Academic projects
- Sociopolitical research and studies
- E-books, technical publications, and educational materials
- Content focused on enhancing the quality of public debate

Centro de Inovação Municipal (CIM)

Municipal Innovation Center

Within the scope of the NEP, the Centro de Inovação Municipal (CIM), stands out as a strategic initiative focused on strengthening local public administration.

O CIM offers:

- Practical training for municipal leaders and staff
- Innovative solutions to public administration challenges
- Optimization of public resources to deliver more with less

Through the NEP and the CIM, FRB strengthens and enhances local governance, elevates public debate, and turns public policies into concrete improvements that positively impact people's lives.

Political Leadership Development

FRB strengthens democracy through the training of political leaders. In this context, PreparAção 2026, stands out as a nationwide electoral training initiative, offering free, practical, in-person workshops aimed at professionalizing campaigns and campaign teams.

The program addresses topics such as Campaign Coordination, Grassroots Mobilization, Technology and Artificial Intelligence, Data Protection, Crisis Management, Campaign Finance Reporting, and Electoral Advertising, contributing to higher technical, ethical, and operational standards in electoral processes in Brazil.

International Engagement

The FRB also engages internationally, sharing Brazil's experience in citizenship, public administration, and sustainable development at strategic global forums.

Notable participations include:

- 8th Forum of Local and Regional Governments (UN | New York): FRB presented Brazilian municipal experiences aligned with the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

- COP30 (Belém/PA): Invited by ICLEI (International Council for Local Environmental Initiatives), FRB participated in the conference with the Climate Best Practices Report, showcasing Brazilian municipal solutions aligned with international sustainable development agendas.

Faculdade Republicana

The Fundação Republicana Brasileira believes in the power of education as a tool for social transformation, democratic strengthening, and institutional development.

To further expand FRB's educational legacy, its flagship project was created: Faculdade Republicana (Republican College).

The only one in Latin America

Faculdade Republicana is the first higher education institution in Brazil certified by the Ministry of Education and dedicated to political education. It is the only one in Latin America supported by a party-affiliated foundation.

The institution trains citizens to promote democratic development.

Its mission is to train high-performance professionals to work in public service, advisory roles, social movements, electoral processes, and related fields, always contributing to an ethical and efficient political order.

Faculdade Republicana seeks to promote both theoretical and practical education on the functioning of institutions in Brazil and around the world. To this end, it relies on faculty who combine strong academic credentials with political experience, offering students the best in terms of knowledge and practical insight in the country.

Educational Excellence

High-quality facilities and teams, with a strong focus on practical learning, entrepreneurship, and student employability.

Faculdade Republicana offers undergraduate degrees in Law, Political Science and Public Management, well as several graduate programs, including the specialization in Parliamentary Advisory, Government Relations, and Lobbying —the only program of its kind in the country and a national benchmark.

The institution develops public leaders and high-performing professionals committed to republican values and the strengthening of democracy.

In 2025, it established a partnership with the Institute of Social and Political Sciences of the University of Lisbon, marking a new phase in the internationalization of education and expanding academic opportunities for its students.

The institution also offers free, online non-degree courses. These programs combine free access, academic quality, and tradition, representing a significant contribution to society.

More than a project, Faculdade Republicana represents the consolidation of years of work by the Fundação Republicana Brasileira.

Spaces designed to encourage collaborative learning and the development of great ideas.

Mock Court: a practical environment offering Law students experience in the judiciary.

Mock Committee: a hands-on environment where Political Science students develop debate skills and practical experience in the legislative process.

Classes taught by master's and doctoral-level faculty, combining academic excellence with a strong commitment to education.
